AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.
O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

Words: Katherine L. Bates, 1859-1929, alt.
Music: MATERNA, Samuel A. Ward, 1848-1903

ALMA MATER

High above the Sagatagan,
Towering o'er the oak and pine,
Proudly stands our alma mater,
Ever let her beacon shine.
Alma mater we'll be loyal
Ever love and praise thy name.
Hail, all hail Saint John's our mother,
We thy honor will proclaim.

Words: Eldred Cleare, SJU '43
Music: Innocent Gertken, OSB, and Dominic Keller, OSB
arr. Axel Theimer, SJU '71

FOR THE BEAUTY OF THE EARTH

For the beauty of the earth,
for the beauty of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies,
Refrain: Christ our God, to thee we raise
this our hymn of grateful praise.
For the joy of human love,
brother, sister, parent, child,
friends on earth, and friends above,
for all gentle thoughts and mild,
Refrain
For each perfect gift of thine
to the world so freely giv'n,
faith and hope and love divine,
peace on earth and joy in heav'n,
Refrain

Words: Folliot Sandford Pierpoint (1835-1917), alt.
Music: DIX 77.77.77, arr. from Conrad Kocher (1786-1872)

ALL COLLEGE HONORS

All College Honors is a distinction earned by students who have completed the five courses that make up the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University Honors Scholars for Community and Collaborative Leadership program. The interdisciplinary program culminates in a two-semester research project developed by our Honors Scholars in collaboration with local community partners, the goal of which is to enhance the common good of the community.

ALPHA ALPHA ALPHA

Alpha Alpha Alpha, also known as Tri-Alpha, is a national honor society established in 2018 recognizing the academic success of first generation college students. Criteria for induction include being a first-generation student with a sophomore status or having completed at least 30 credit hours, and a grade point average of 3.2 on a scale of 4.0 at the time of induction.

PHI BETA KAPPA

Founded in 1776, Phi Beta Kappa is the nation's first Greek-letter society and its oldest academic honor society. For more than two and a quarter centuries, the Society has embraced the principles of freedom of inquiry and liberty of thought and expression. "OBK" are the Greek initials representing the Society's motto: "Love of learning is the guide of life." Phi Beta Kappa celebrates and advocates excellence in the liberal arts and sciences. Its campus chapters invite for induction the most outstanding arts and science students at America's leading colleges and universities. Each year, about one college senior in a hundred, nationwide, is invited to join Phi Beta Kappa.

SIGMA BETA DELTA

Sigma Beta Delta was established in 1994 to honor students who have attained superior records in business programs in regionally accredited schools and colleges. Membership in Sigma Beta Delta is the highest national recognition for students of business, management, and administration. The principles of Sigma Beta Delta, Wisdom, Honor and Aspiration, are represented by three Greek words, the initials of which form the name of the society, $\Sigma\text{B}\Delta$. The honor recognizes a student's scholarship and achievement, and encourages personal and professional improvement and a life distinguished by honorable service to humankind.

THE SEAL OF SAINT JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

To most people the seal of the University is perhaps merely a design on a notebook or sweatshirt, but embodied in this little seal are all the principles for which Saint John's University stands. It is therefore worthy of closer inspection.

The first University seal was designed in 1934 by Reverend Angelo Zankl, OSB who had done considerable work in heraldry. At the time he was the head of the Saint John's Art Department.

A quotation from St. Paul, "Induamur Arma Lucis," meaning "Let us put on the armor of light," was chosen as the motto for the crest. This theme is represented symbolically by a shield on which is emblazoned the golden sun of learning and grace displacing the darkness of ignorance and sin. Around the shield is thrown the red scroll upon which the Latin phrase is printed in blue, giving the school colors of truth and courage. Under the shield in Roman numerals is printed the date of the foundation of the school, in 1857. Bordering this is the Latin name of the University and finally an old Roman-style border.

In 1988 the University seal was revised and simplified to afford greater clarity particularly when printed in smaller sizes. Care was given in revising the design to ensure that the principles embodied in the seal were maintained. The revision was executed by Br. Alan Reed, OSB who at the time, like Father Angelo in 1934, was head of the Art Department. Final touches were provided by graphic artist Donald Skoro of Minneapolis.

FLAGS ON DISPLAY

The U.S. Flag that is displayed today was given to Saint John's University by Lt. Col. John T. Peterson '85, U.S. Marine Corps. The flag was flown on a MV-22 Osprey by Marine Medium Tiltrotor Squadron 162 over Al Anbar Province Iraq on September 28, 2008 while in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom 08.1.

The international flags displayed represent the individual countries of this year's graduates.

The tribal flags displayed are the 11 federally recognized tribal nations in Minnesota. They are flown to respect and honor the original caretakers of this land who were forcibly removed from, and are still connected to this territory.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The custom of wearing academic dress originated in the universities of the Middle Ages when a warm gown and hood were useful for scholars and clerics in unheated buildings. The distinctive apparel indicated the academic rank of its wearer. Most of the early academic garments were black, but by Renaissance times Oxford and Cambridge had added touches of color. The costumes worn at the universities of continental Europe became increasingly colorful. Academic caps of various shapes eventually superseded the hood as a head covering. At the end of the 19th century, American universities and colleges adopted a code for academic costumes and ceremonies. It is possible to recognize the degree granting institution, the degree, and the field of study of the person wearing academic regalia.

The gown designating the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science ordinarily is black with long, pointed sleeves. The master's gown has oblong sleeves. Bell-shaped sleeves crossed with three wide bands of velvet indicate the doctor's gown.

The greatest degree of symbolism is shown by the hood. The color and width of the velvet border indicate the degree and field of study. The length of the hood varies with the degree, from three feet for the bachelor's to four feet for the doctor's. The bachelor's hood is somewhat pointed in shape; the doctor's is rounded. The official colors of the institution conferring the degree line the hood. The Saint John's University Bachelor of Arts hood is lined with cardinal red and blue and is banded with white velvet and the Bachelor of Science hood is lined with cardinal red and blue and is banded with yellow velvet. The color of the velvet strip on the hood indicates the field of study in which the degree was earned or granted. Some of the faculty will be wearing gowns with distinctive colors: Harvard's crimson; Chicago's and Minnesota's maroon; Yale's blue; Cornell's red; Stanford's bright red; Brown's brown; Oxford's black and red.

The purpose of academic costume and ceremonies is to celebrate formally the academic goals and achievements of an institution's students, administration, faculty and staff.
