

COLLEGE OF
Saint Benedict  Saint John's
UNIVERSITY

Inspired Learning. Inspiring Lives.

November 2009

The retirees of these two institutions are an important part of the current success of the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University. It is important to us that you continue to have opportunities to renew old friendships and catch up on the changing life on these two campuses.

In the past few years, we have implemented an informal association of retirees to help you stay connected to one another and to the colleges. You will always be a part of this community and you may choose to be as involved as you like.

Interested retired faculty and staff will be provided the following:

An ID card that will afford you access to the library and the fitness center, as well as faculty/staff discounts to athletic events and on-campus fine arts presentations;

Access to the CSB/SJU internet e-mail system, should you choose to remain on the system;

A series of on-campus social events specifically intended to encourage retired employees to gather, socialize, and see what is new at our two schools.

Of course you will continue to be invited to events, such as the employee Christmas parties, so you can celebrate the season with current employees.

We trust your life in retirement is filled with all good things and hope you will consider this another good thing worth pursuing. We would love to see you around campus on a regular basis and look forward to visiting with you on special occasions.

Sincerely,

MaryAnn Baenninger
